

Reveal what is Hidden: Human Trafficking

Do something to make known this reality

On the European Anti Trafficking Day:

Send us a photo showing the existence of the so called “Modern Slavery”
and its impact on society.

European Anti Trafficking Day

Activities October 16th 2014

You are invited to participate in our photo competition “No to Human Trafficking” by sending us photos taken with your mobile phone.

The competition will take place between September 25 and October 15

Participants should send their photos vía twitter a @comillas_iuem or by e-mail migraciones@iem.upcomillas.es

Participants may present only one photo, taken with the mobile phone

All photos will be shown in an exhibition organised by the Pontifical University of Comillas to mark the European Anti Trafficking Day

The panel of judges will consist of three people whose names will be revealed together with the results of the competition.

The judges will chose as winner one photo that best illustrates human trafficking. The photo's originality , creativity, novelty and beauty will be taken into account

The winner will be announced on October 16th during the European Anti Trafficking Day in the Pérez del Pulgar Conference Room.

La organización se reserva el derecho a excluir del certamen los trabajos que no se atengan a lo dispuesto en ellas.