

RELIGIOUS IN EUROPE NETWORKING
AGAINST TRAFFICKING AND EXPLOITATION

EU Anti- Trafficking Day 2025

15th October 2025

Loving and Compassionate God,

We gather before You today, united in spirit across many places, yet joined as one body in Christ. On this day, as we prepare to mark the EU Anti-Trafficking Day, we hold before You all who suffer from exploitation and all who work for freedom. Bless this gathering, that it may be more than an event, may it be a movement of hearts towards justice, prayer, and solidarity.

Guide us, Lord, in this work of compassion and courage.

God of creativity and communion,

We thank You for the vision, time, and dedication that has gone into building our new RENATE website.

May it be a place where voices rise in prayer for the oppressed, where knowledge spreads, and where solidarity deepens across borders. Let every page be a light in the darkness, a refuge for the weary, and a call to action for justice.

We dedicate this work to You, Lord, and ask that it may bear fruit for many years to come.

God of Life and Love,

We pray for every child, woman, and man who has been trapped in the chains of human trafficking. Hear their cries, Lord, and bring them into safe hands.

Restore their dignity, heal their wounds, and grant them hope. May our efforts never falter until every person knows the freedom and love that is their birthright as Your child.

AGAINST TRAFFICKING AND EXPLOITATION

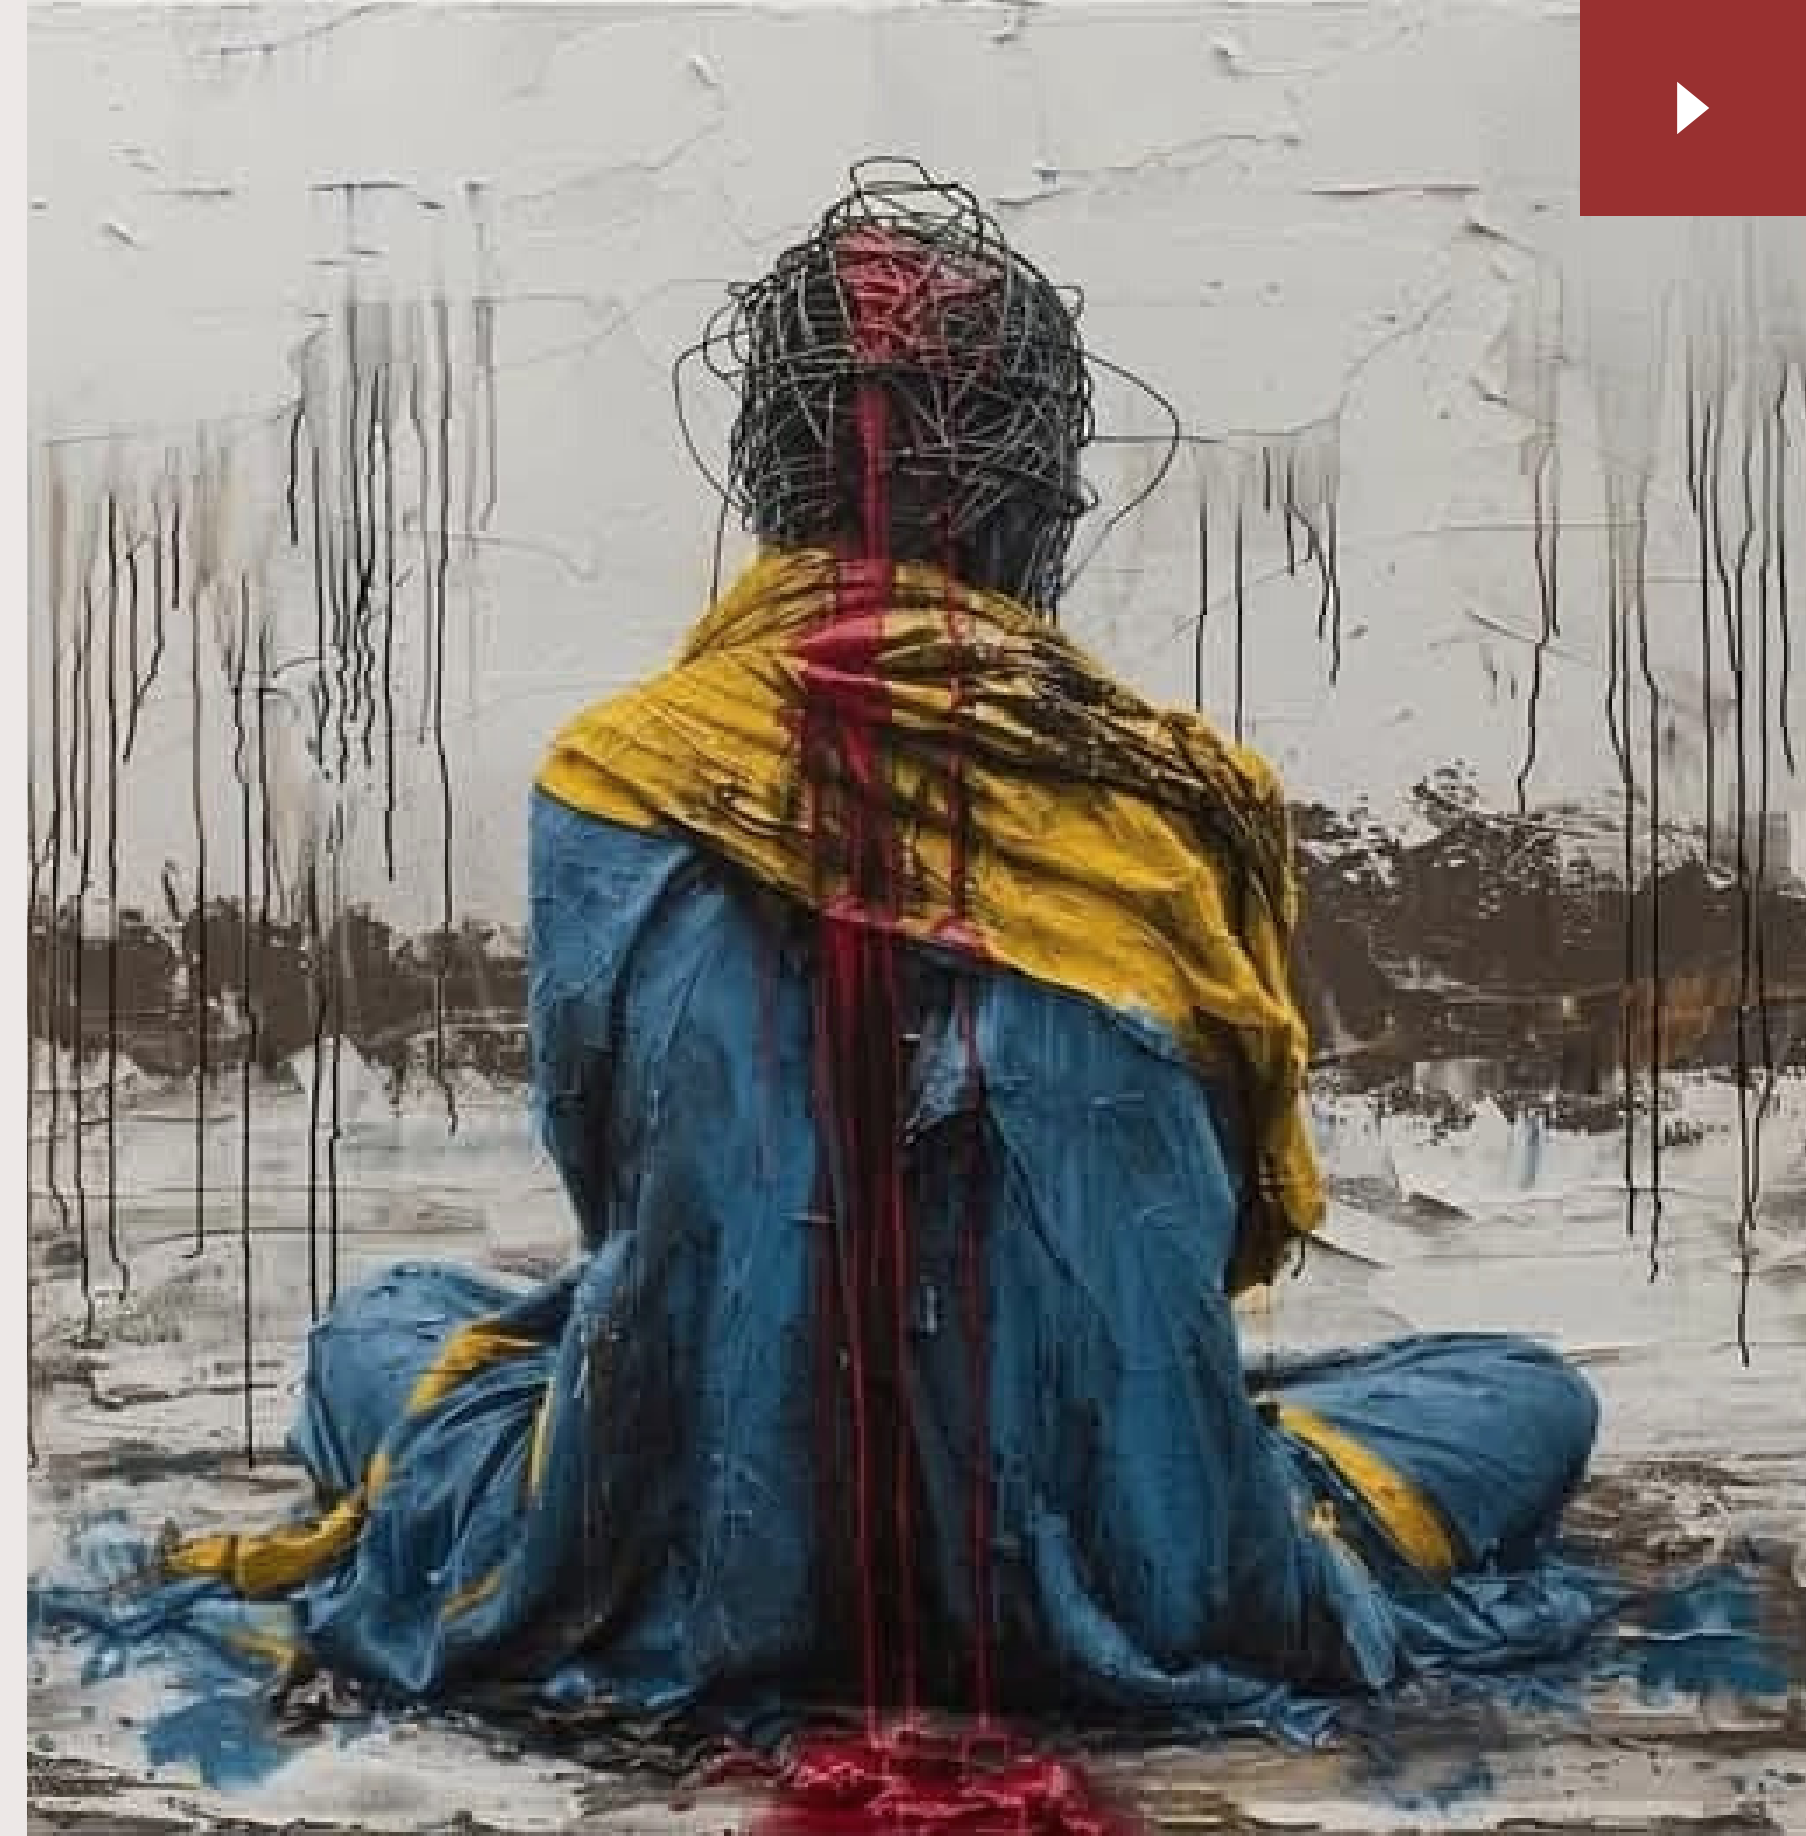

God of peace,

In a world torn by war and conflict, we remember Ukraine, Gaza, and all lands where violence feeds vulnerability.

We know that war and displacement place many at risk of trafficking and exploitation.

We pray for safety for those forced to flee, for healing for the wounded, and for courage for peacemakers.

Lord, turn weapons into ploughshares, and let justice and peace embrace.

God of wisdom,

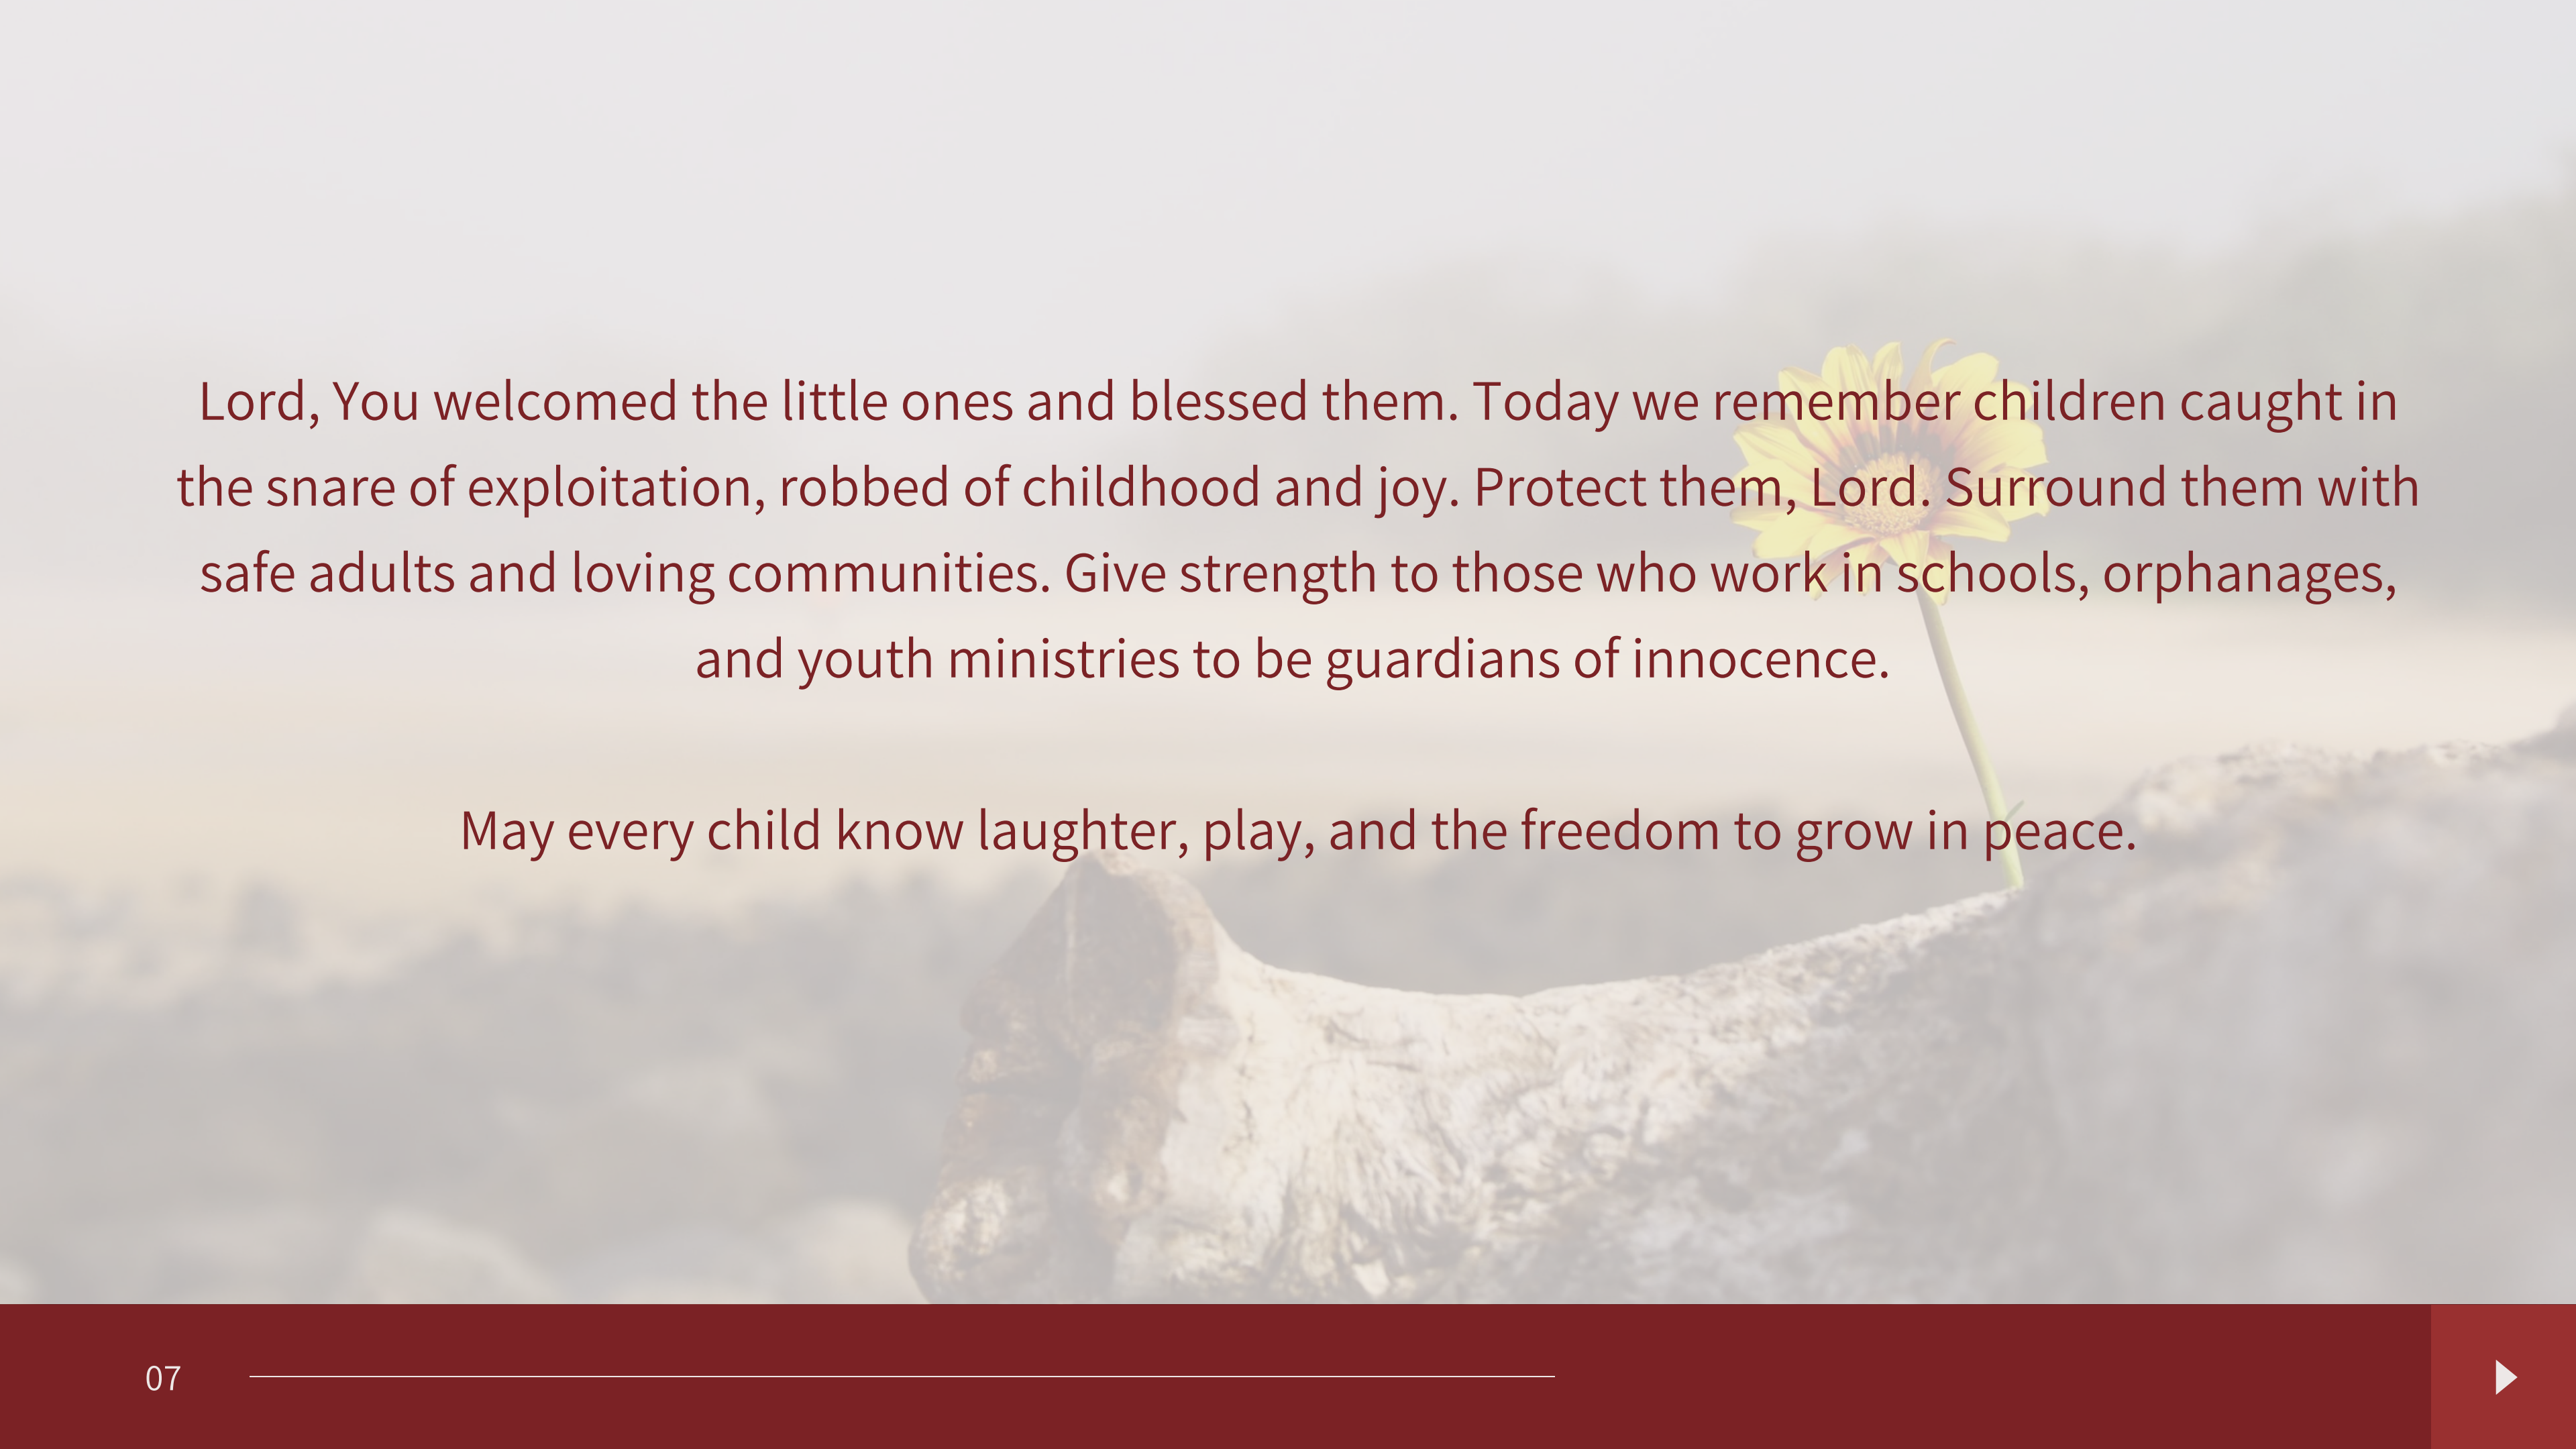

We pray for those in positions of authority, from local leaders to global policymakers. Grant them insight, courage, and compassion to enact laws that protect the vulnerable and dismantle trafficking networks.

Where corruption blinds, open eyes; where greed hardens hearts, soften them; where bureaucracy delays justice, let Your Spirit move swiftly.

May leaders govern with integrity and vision for the common good.

Lord, You welcomed the little ones and blessed them. Today we remember children caught in the snare of exploitation, robbed of childhood and joy. Protect them, Lord. Surround them with safe adults and loving communities. Give strength to those who work in schools, orphanages, and youth ministries to be guardians of innocence.

May every child know laughter, play, and the freedom to grow in peace.

Holy Spirit,

Breathe new life into the RENATE network. Bless our sisters and brothers across Europe and the world who carry this mission of prayer, awareness, and action. Knit us together in unity, even across distance. Give us endurance when the road is long, and joy when victories come.

Open our eyes to the hidden suffering of trafficking victims in our own communities. Do not let us pass them by. Instead, stir our conscience, enlarge our compassion, and help us to act in ways that bring both relief and lasting change.

Bless each of us, Lord, that we may be Your witnesses in a world that longs for justice, peace, and healing.

In Your name we pray, Amen.
